New Providence township, Union county, gives Seymour 150, Grant 144; for Governor, Randolph 157, Blair 140.

Union county—Linden gives Blair, for Governor, 31 maj; Clark, for Congress, 38; Rep. gain of 22.

Westfield gives Seymour 272, Grant 222, a Republican gain of 5. North Brunswick gives 90 maj. for Grant, a gain of 20 over the highest Republican vote. Hackettstown, Grant 151, Seymour 258; Randolph 262, Blair 145.

Newark: The city complete gives Grant 904. Blair for Governor 606. Halsey, Republican candidate for Congress, 1,188, a Republican gain of 642 on the Presidential ticket. Essex county gives Grant 1,500 maj.; Blair 1,200; Hill, Republican candidate for Congress, 600. The Republicans gain one Assemblyman.

Hammonton gives Grant 228 maj. Mercer goes Democratic for Governor of the State, Senator and Congressman by upwards of two hundred majority; vote in Bloomfield: Grant 268, Seymour 256.

A dispatch to the Western Union Telegraph Company says the returns from New Jersey come in very slowly, but it is believed the State has gone for Grant by a small majority, while Randolph, Democrat, is elected Governor.

Atlantic City elects the whole Republican ticket by 63 majority. Newark gives Grant 904 majority, and Blair, Republican candidate for Governor, 660 majority; Halsey, Republican candidate for Congress, has 1,198 majority.

Mercer county gives about 300 Democratic majority.

Essex county gives Grant about 1,500 majority, Blair 1,200, and Hill, for Congress, 600 majority. The township of Egg Harbor gives Grant 66 majority, Blair, for Governor, 60, and Moore, for Congress, 85 majority.

Newton township gives Seymour 245 maj. Randolph 261 maj., Baird, for Congress, 279.

Atlantic county gives 500 maj. for Grant and John J. Blair.

Salem gives 350 majority for Grant and John J. Blair. Union township gives Seymour 75, Randolph 79, Baird 78, Haugh 21 majority.

Cumberland county gives a Republican majority of 1,300 for the whole ticket.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco—Business is generally suspended and all is quiet around the polls. The Democrats will probably carry the city by a small majority for Seymour. The Republican vote is unusually large and they will carry a portion of the local ticket. The Republicans are confident of the State for Grant. Returns from the interior towns indicate Republican majorities.

San Francisco, 10:30 P. M.—Scattering returns from the interior show large Union gains. Sacramento county gives about 1,000 majority for Grant, and only six last year for Gorham. Stockton gives 226 Union majority, which is larger than the majority of the whole county last year.

Nevada county gives Grant at least 600 majority, which last year gave only 72. Almada gives Grant 600 majority, which is more than double that of last year. Several localities which gave a Democratic majority last year are now Union. The Democratic majority in some of the southern counties will show gains, but it is believed the Republican gains are sufficiently in excess to secure the electoral vote for Grant. In San Francisco all the wards show large Union gains, but the Democrats will probably have a small majority. Their majority last year was nearly four thousand. A portion of the Union municipal ticket is certainly elected. Union Congressmen in the two northern districts are probably elected, and the Democratic Congressman is probably elected in the Southern district. This would show a Union gain of one Congressman.

MAINE.

LEWISTOWN, October 3.—The vote will be reduced from September.

The returns show considerable Republican gains over the September election, in Portland.

The results stand Grant 3,230, Seymour 1,838, against a Republican vote of 3,357, and Democrats 2,379 in September, being a Republican gain of 414; in Bath Grant 1,022. Seymour 347, against Republican 1,060, Democrats 426 in September, a Republican gain of 41; in Saco Gaant 825, Seymour 338, against Republicans 850, and Democrats 448, in September, a Republican gain of 94.

AUGUSTA, ME. Nov. 3.—Augusta gives Grant 342 majority, a Republican gain of 250; seven other cities and towns show a Republican gain of 1,067 or about 39 per cent, indicating a majority of 28,000 to 30,000 for Grant and Colfax in the State.

Bangor—gives 1,000 majority for Grant, a Republican gain of 220.

PORTLAND, Nov. 3, 9 P. M.—Seventy-two towns give Grant 27,376, Seymour 14,901: Grant's majority is 12,475 against 9,072 in September.

Eighty-one towns give Grant 31,225, and Seymour 16,722; Grant's maj. is 14,563, a net gain over September of 3,758. This indicates nearly 28,000 maj. in the State against 20,000 in September, and an aggregate vote of about 112,500 against 130,766 in September.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, November 3.—Returns from forty towns indicate that the Republicans have carried New Hampshire by from 5,000 to 7,000 majority.

Concord—Returns from 26 towns and cities give Grant, 9,893, Seymour, 6,674. The vote of Concord is Grant, 1,524, Seymour, 865; a majority of 656 and a net gain since last March of 235. The returns thus far received indicate a majority for Grant in New Hampshire of 6,000.

CONCORD, November 3.—The following returns have been received:

Stafford county—Farmington, Grant 278, Seymour 218. New Durham, Grant 62, Seymour 148. Rolingford, Grant 201, Seymour 18. Barrington, Grant 292, Seymour 182. Medbury, Grant 58, Seymour 42.

Belknap county—Alton, Grant 204, Seymour 213.

Rockingham county—South New Market, Grant 192, Seymour 39. Somersworth, Grant 614, Seymour 196. Strafford, Grant 200, Seymour 247.

The State is claimed by the Republicans by about 8,000 majority.

One hundred and three towns give Grant 5,600 maj. The Statesman now estimates Grant's maj. at 8,000.

One hundred and forty-four towns give Grant, 29,560, Seymour, 24,752.

MICHIGAN.

The Chairman of the State Central Committee says that scattering returns show Republican gains over 1866, and that the Republican majority in the State is probably 25,000.

Detroit—Scattering returns so far from all parts of the State show considerable Republican gains over the vote of 1866. The State will probably give Grant 20,000 of a mojority.

In the First District, for Congress, Mills, Democrat, runs ahead of his ticket and will have 1,500 majority in this county, and will reduce Beman's majority to about 1,500.

Returns from three wards of Detroit city show small Republican gains.

The Republicans claim the State for Grant by 25,000 majority, and that all six Congressmen are elected.

Detroit—Michigan will give Grant 30,000 majority. The delegation in Congress will be unanimously Republican. In the First district Beeman's majority in very much reduced, and will probably be a thousand. The majority in the Sixth district is also much reduced. Ferry, Stoughton and Blair have very large majorities. The Legislature will be about three-fourths Republican.

KANSAS.

The State is claimed by the Republicans by ten thousand majority.

Manhattan—The voting passed off quietly; not as heavy a vote as last year: Grant 278, Seymour 46, Republican majority 232; for Governor, Harvey, Rep., 275, Glyck, Dem., 52; Congress, Clark, Rep., 268, Blair, Dem., 51.

Lawrence—Lawrence gives Grant 718, Seymour 162; Wakansa, Grant 224 majority; White Cloud gives Grant 196 majority, Republican gain 74 over 1866. The Republican State ticket runs about 10 votes behind the vote for President.

Leavenworth City—First ward, Democratic loss 96; Second ward, Republican loss 30; Third ward, Republican gain 141; Fourth ward, Democratic loss 65, as compared with 1866.

Grant's majority in Kansas is estimated at 12,000.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha City—Complete returns give 322 Republican majority, a Republican gain of 252; Nebraska City gives 30 Democratic majority, a Republican gain of 61; Brownsville gives 148 Republican majority, a gain of 96; Rulo gives a Republican gain of 51; Grand Island gives a Republican gain of 19; Plattesmouth gives a Republican gain of 18; Columbus gives a Republican gain of 45; North Platte gives a Republican gain of 111; Fremont gives a Republican gain of 75.

Platte county gives a Republican gain of 55.

Nemaha county gives a Republican gain of 200.

Otoe county gives a Republican gain of 125.

The indications are that the State has gone Republican by over 4,000 majority. All the above precincts show a gain over the October election.

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, October 3.—The vote of the city is not all counted, four wards to hear from. The votes of six wards gives Grant 2,297, Seymour 646. In the country four precincts gives Grant 143, Seymour 243. The wards not reported will increase Grant's majority several hundred. Presser runs ahead for Congress, and is elected, no doubt, by a large majority. Giles, Maury, Rutherford, Franklin and Coffee counties show heavy Democratic gains, and fears are felt by the Republicans of the defeat of Tillman in the Fourth District, who run for Congress in the place of Mullins; Arnel's majority at Columbia was 500.

MEMPHIS, November 3.—The election passed over more quietly than ever before known. The police arrangements were admirable, and not a single disturbance occurred. The vote, as compared with that VERSES IN MY OLD AGE.

BY BARRY CORNWALL.

Come, from the ends of the World,
Wind of the air or sky,
Wherever the Thunder is hurled,
Wherever the Lightnings fly!
Come, with the bird on your bosom,
(Linnet or lark that soars,)
Come with the sweet Spring blossom,
And the sun from Southern shores.

I hate the snake Winter that creepeth,
And poisons the buds of May;
I shout to the Sun who sleepeth,
And pray him awake to day,
For the world is in want of his power,
To vanquish the rebel storm:
All wait for his golden hour,
Man, and beast, and worm.

Not only the seasons, failing,
Forsake their natural tone,
But Age droops onward, sailing,
And is lost in the seas unknown.
No wisdom redeemeth his sorrow,
For thought and strength are fled:
No hope enlightens to-morrow,
And the Past (so loved) is dead!
Dead!—Dead!

Concentrated Progress of the World.

Few phenomena are more remarkable, yet few have been less remarked, than the degree in which the progress of mankind in all those contrivances which oil the wheels and promote the comfort of daily life, has been concentrated in the last half century. It is not too much to say that in these respects more has been done, richer and more prolific discoveries have been made, grander achievements have been realized, in the course of the fifty years of our lifetime than in all the previous life time of the race.

It is in the three momentous of light, locomotion, and communication that the progress effected in this generation contrasts most surprisingly with the aggregate of the progress effected in all generations put together since the earliest dawn of authentic history. The lamps and torches which illuminated Belshazzar's feast were probably just as brilliant, and framed out of nearly the same materials, as those which shone upon the splendid fetes of Versailles when Maria Antoinette presided over them, or those of the Tuileries during the Imperial magnificence of the First Napoleon. Pine wood, oil, and perhaps wax, lighted the banquet halls of the wealthiest nobles, alike in the eighteenth century before Christ and in the eighteenth century after Chirst. There was little difference between the lamps used in the days of the Pyramids, the days of the Coliseum, and days of Kensington Palace. Fifty years ago, that is, we burnt the same articles, and got about the same amount of light from them as we did five thousand years ago. Now, we use gas of which each burner is equal to fifteen or twenty candles; and when we wish for more can have recourse to the electric light or analagous inventions, which are fifty fold more brilliant and far-reaching than even the best gas.

All the advance that has been made in these respects has been made since many of us were children. We remember light as it was in the days of Solomon; we see it as Drummond and Farady have made it.

The same thing may be said of locomotion. Nimrod and Noah traveled just in the same way, and just at the same rate, as Thomas Asheton Smith and Mr. Coke, of Norfolk. The chariots of the Olympic Games went just as fast as the chariots that conveyed our nobles to the Derby, "in our hot youth, when George the Third was King." When Abraham wanted to send a message to Lot he despatched a man on horseback, who galloped twelve miles an hour. When our fathers wanted to send a message to their nephews, they could do no better and go no quicker. When we were young, if we wished to travel, we thought ourselves lucky if we could average eight miles an hour—just as Robert Bruce might have done. Now, in our old age, we feel ourselves aggrieved if we do not average forty miles.

The same at sea. Probably, when the wind was favorable, Ulysses, who was a bold and skillful navigator, sailed as fast as a Dutch merchantman of the year 1800, nearly as fast at times as an American yacht or clipper of our fathers' day. Now, we steam twelve and fifteen miles an hour, with wonderful regularity, whether wind and tide be favorable or not; nor is it likely that we shall ever be able to go much faster. But the progress in the means of communication is the most remarkable of all. In this respect Mr. Pitt was no better off than Pericles or Agamemnon. If Ruth had wished to write to Naomi, or David to send a word of love to Sonathan when he was a hundred miles away, they could not possibly have done it under twelve hours. Nor could we to our friends thirty years ago. In 1868 the humblest citizen can send such a message, not a hundred miles, but a thousand, in twelve minutes.—[Spectator.

A Visit From the Other World.

A strange incident took place a fortnight before Leutze's death, which was mentioned at the time of its occurrence to some friends:

Leutze was lying on a lounge in his painting room about three o'clock in the afternoon. His servant, a colored boy, opened the door and said a lady wished to see his master. At the same moment a female, dressed in black and closely veiled, entered. She advanced toward Leutze, who arose to meet her. The lady threw up her veil, and the artist was astounded to see a friend who had been dead ten years! "Good God, madam!" he cried out, "where did you come from?" "Oh, Mr. Leutze, my sister is in the hall. I will bring her in." She stepped out of the room. Leutze followed her, but could not see either his visitor or any one else in the hall. He ran to the street door, looked up and down, but in vain. The servant was summoned. "Did you show a lady in to see me?" asked Leutze. "Yes, sir." "Where is she?" "She is here, sir." The boy turned to look for the visitor, but not finding her, said, "She has not had time to leave the house;" and went quickly to the front door. Leutze followed him, and both ran into the street, looked in every direction, but neither master nor servant saw her again. This is an interesting account, surely, and startling to some.

Statistics.

The Siecle gives us another example of the ingenuity and patience with which the Paris chroniquer introduces the most useless statistics. A little time ago we were informed as to the exact amount of paving-stones required to cover the streets of Paris. This time the able collector of the faits divers seems to have tumbled upon an old speech of General Foy. The subject which formed its text was a proposal to give 1,000,000,000 francs as a compensation to the emigrants. The General exclaimed, "Do you not know that 1,000,000,000 minutes have not yet passed since the death of Christ?" Here it is that the Siecle, hitherto coy, burst into daring eloquence. We are told that the exactitude of General Foy was such that though he delivered his speech half a century ago, the 1,000,000,000 minutes have not yet expired. Indeed, next Christmas will only account for 982,368,000 minutes since the birth of our Lord. A year contains 525,000 minutes, and forty more years will be required to reach the round figure. It will not be till A. D. 1902 that the 1,000,000,000 will have been completed.

AT the recent centennary celebration at the John Street Methodist Church in New York, a tablet erected in memory of Barbara Hicks was unveiled. A correspondent writes that "this was the famous woman who broke in upon the conclave of Methodist card players, among whom was Phillip Embury, the first pastor, and afterwards Bishop of the Methodists. She seized the cards, threw them into the fire, shouted that they would all go to hell, and that Embury must go to preaching if he would not have the blood of souls upon his skirts. From that hour Methodism was started and has never waned. The Bible from which Phillip Embury preached when he dedicated the church a hundred years ago, was shown to the people. It is of the old black letter type, with illuminated frontispiece and bears the date of 1611."

CHOOSING A PATRON SAINT.—The recent earthquake in South America had suggested to the clergy of Valparaiso the propriety of selecting a new patron saint of the city. An election was consequently ordered; quite a number of nominations were made, and at the close of the election it was ascertained that Jesus Christ had received 19,000 votes, the Virgin Mary 4,000 votes, and that 389 votes were scattering.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is receding slowly at this point with eight feet ten inches in the channel last evening by the Monongahela marks. The weather yesterday was clear with a heavy frost in the morning, and the rain is over for the present.

No arrivals to report, except the Grey Eagle, from Rochester, where she was laid up waiting for water. The Eagle, in command of Captain Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving at noon.

The Ingomar departed for Parkersburg yesterday on time.

The Camelia, Capt. Thos. Poe, is filling up steadily for Nashville, as is also the Maggie Hays, for St. Louis.

The Arkansas, Ida Rees, and Armadillo are all announced for New Orleans.

The Armenia, R. C. Grey, Wild Duck, J. N. McCullough and Armadillo are among the first boats due.

—The Emma No. 3, from Cincinnati, arrived at New Orleans.

—The Economist left Memphis for Arkansas river Thursday night.

—Capt. Holcroft and C. G. Shultz, of Louisville have bought into the Virginia, one eighth each, at the rate of $48,000 for the whole boat.

—Capt. Milt. Aiken has resigned command of the Kate Robinson, and is succeeded by Captain Asa Mason, who was formerly clerk.

—Captain John Cannon and others are negotiating for the purchase of the Belle Lee, to take the place of the Quitman in the Vicksburg and New Orleans trade.

—The St. Marys was attached at Memphis Wednesday evening for $20,000 damages for carrying a passenger beyond the landing where he was to get off. The boat gave bond and proceeded on her way.

—Capt. Sam. Houston was expected to arrive at Cincinnati on Monday. Captain Houston had command of the Hesper when she was recently captured by pirates on the lower Mississippi. He has received orders to sell the boat.

—The St. Luke struck a break coming down the Missouri, below Glasgow, on Sunday morning. Probably one hundred of her timbers are broken. A bulkhead was constructed in the hold, and by that means very little freight was damaged. When unloaded she will go on the docks.

—The certificate of incorporation of the Portsmouth & Cincinnati Packet Company was filed at the office of Secretary of State on Saturday. The capital stock is $20,000, in shares of $100. The corporators are David Gibson, E. B. Moore, Henry Grotenkemper, Wm. Moore and Godfrey Holterhoff.

—The certificate of incorporation of the Maysville & Cincinnati Packet Company was also filed at the Secretary of State's office on the previous day. The capital stock of this Company is $24,000, in shares of $50. The corporators are E. R. Bell, D. Gibson, T. N. Johnson, J. W. Cheeseman and Oscar F. Shaw.

—Three men, on Saturdag night, entered the office of Mr. Orr, agent of the Northern Line at Wabashaw, Minnesota, closed his mouth with a plaster, bound him hand and foot, robbed him of his watch and pocket book, rifled the safe of some $1,500, and decamped, locking the door of the office. Mr. Orr was not seriously hurt.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial: Capt. Shedden, of the Leonidas, received a dispatch from Capt. Shalcross, of Louisville, yesterday, announcing the sinking of the barge Ella Faber, at Patriot, Indiana. The Leonidas used the barge to lighten her from Louisville to Cincinnati, and it was being towed back to Louisville by the mail packet United States when it sunk.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing and harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal, but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in the latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1868.

THE GENERAL RESULT.

GRANT is chosen President and COLFAX Vice President, by majorities in the Electoral Colleges which exclude cavil on the part of even the most captious Democrat. The Republicans have certainly carried the following States, with electors as annexed:

Maine	7	Wisconsin	8
New Hampshire	5	Iowa	8
Vermont	5	Minnesota	4
Massachusetts	12	Kansas	3
Rhode Island	4	Nebraska	3
Connecticut	6	Nevada	3
Pennsylvania	26	Mississippi	11
Ohio	21	West Virginia	5
Indiana	13	Florida	3
Illinois	16
Michigan	8		171

Now, conceding the Democrats have carried all the other States in which elections were held yesterday, their column will stand thus:

New Jersey	7	Kentucky	11
Tennessee	10	South Carolina	6
North Carolina	9	Alabama	8
California	5	New York	33
Oregon	3	Arkansas	5
Delaware	3	Louisiana	7
Maryland	7	Georgia	9
Total			123

Add to these, the States which remain non-reconstructed, with the number of Electors to which they will be entitled when restored:

Texas	6	Mississippi	7
Virginia	10
Total			23

This would run up the number of Democratic Electors to 146, leaving the Republicans a clear majority of 25 Electoral votes.

But it would be a singular fatality that should drop all the doubtful States into the hands of the Democrats. New Jersey 7, Tennessee 10, North Carolina 9, California 5, Oregon 3, are quite probably against them. This would reduce the Democratic aggregate to 102 Electors, and increase the Republican aggregate to 215 Electors. This would give the Republicans a majority of 79 Electors in the States actually participating, and of 56, counting all the States as in, according to the extremest Democratic pretensions.

Our latest returns leave no doubt that California, Oregon, Tennessee, New Jersey, North Carolina and South Carolina are also to be placed in the Union column by decisive majorities. This adds to the 171 votes first assigned to GRANT as above, 40 votes, giving him a total of 211, or exactly two-thirds of a full Electoral College of all the thirty-seven States, and that two-thirds which elects him President and controls the Congress is just about the ratio of Loyalty to Treason among the people. There is a harmonious fitness in this result.

THE 41ST CONGRESS.

Elections were yesterday held for one hundred and sixty-eight Representatives, completing the membership of that House. Returns thus far at hand indicate that 102 Republicans and 36 Democrats were chosen, a Republican loss of four members. The opposition having previously gained eight members, the entire Republican vote in the next House will stand 149 Republicans to 56 Democrats, leaving both branches of Congress Republican by considerably more than a two-thirds majority.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

At the Chicago National Convention Allegheny County was pledged, by one of its citizens, who was a delegate, to give GRANT and COLFAX ten thousand majority. Yesterday that pledge was redeemed, and, according to present estimates, an additional thousand and more added by way of hearty good will. Upwards of eleven thousand will do!

PENNSYLVANIA.

The returns so far received indicate that the Republican majority is not less than twenty thousand, and may be five thousand more. Republican gains are pretty generally diffused over the State.

PITTSBURGH AND ALLEGHENY.

These twin cities were, yesterday, animated by a generous rivalry as to which should do best. Both did so well as to make comparisons useless.

THE GROUND SWELL.

MAJORITIES FOR GRANT AND COLFAX, 1868.

Maine	28,000	Illinois	60,000
New Hampshire	8,000	Michigan	30,000
Vermont	30,000	Wisconsin	12,000
Massachusetts	60,000	Iowa	50,000
Rhode Island	6,400	Minnesota	9,000
Connecticut	3,500	Missouri	8,000
New Jersey	3,000	Kansas	12,000
Pennsylvania	25,000	Nebraska	4,000
Ohio	50,000	West Virginia	8,000
Indiana	12,000	Tennessee	20,000
California	5,000	South Carolina	20,000
North Carolina	10,000

The Democrats carry but one Northern State—New York—by 3,500 majority.

LONG LIVE THE LAW!

Hail to the dawn of a New Era for the Great Republic! To its long, black night of wrong and shame, of crime and blood, farewell forever! No more shall liberty be dishonored by the unbridled license of man's oppression, or a lawful freedom be made the cloak for a lawless anarchy! The shameful cycle of treason with its hateful following of war and woe is complete, and Time's new revolution brings peace at last!

No more rebellions—no more spilling of blood like water—no more partings of States and peoples against themselves—no more trampling of laws and organic order in the dust—no more popular carnivals of crime—no longer the third part of the Republic smitten with an infernal fever of private and public wickedness, which could only have sprung from Hell itself—no more the highest hopes of Human Progress on earth to be denied—once more and forever, Human Liberty is proclaimed, Public Justice vindicated, and the Nation confesses its ultimate responsibility to Him who holds all peoples in the hollow of His hand! And He has given us this peace at last!

The War of the Great Rebellion closed, not at Appomattox, but at yesterday's polls. Treason disbanded its armies in 1865, only to re-arm its scattered soldiers for private outrages and assassination. Excluding the few months' of hollow peace which followed GRANT's last success, the Southern States have known nothing of peace, or order, or of law, since the year '61 came in. Their long-misguided populations will see Destiny in the results of yesterday, and accept it without further question. The decision of 1860, reiterated in 1864, is now re-affirmed too clearly to be disputed. The fidelity which has, for three successive Presidential elections, committed the American people unfalteringly to the same issue, is without precedent in the National history. It must be accepted, on all sides, as settling, for an absolute finality, the inauguration of the new era of the Equal Rights of all men. Loyalty so proclaims it, and disloyalty submits to it without another hope for the future.

A wise, patriotic Administration and a loyal Congress will enter in March next, for the first time since LEE's surrender in '65, upon the harmonious direction of this Government in the path of Order, Peace and Prosperity. The Judiciary, which, with other results yesterday, might have been found opposing the right progress of the Nation, is, fortunately, no longer an element of apprehension. Treason, wounded and dying, may possibly yet drag itself to take sanctuary in that forum, but it is comfortable to know that its doors will no longer stand invitingly open, and that the absolute harmony of the two co ordinate departments will remove all the existing temptations for its partizan Judges.

Reconstruction comes now to its first equitable application. Its justice has been made clear, in the face of an Executive hatred which has sought not unsuccessfully to obscure its real merits and to magnify its imperfections. How much more clearly that policy will be vindicated when it shall be as faithfully executed as it has been wisely conceived! Nor shall we need to wait for this until the inauguration of President GRANT. The result will be accepted in advance, by each wing of the beaten opposition. The rebels will not maintain a hopeless contest. Mr. JOHNSON will acquiesce as gracefully as his peculiarities of temper will permit. Supreme Judges will reconsider and revise conclusions already attained, but not yet announced. And as for the party which has supported SEYMOUR and BLAIR, its honest masses will be presently absorbed in the one great party of the Union, and its dishonest leaders will have been buried so deep that they have not even a hope of resurrection.

The last session of the present Congress has before it the plain duty of perfecting the established policy of reconstruction, in such of its details as may need rounding out. No concessions can be made to that rebel spirit which has just now bathed itself in fresh torrents of Union blood. Existing laws must be respected and obeyed, liberty of speech and of the press, protection for life and property must be ensured, at no matter what cost, in every quarter of the South. And that people must be brought to acknowledge the absolute supremacy of the laws hereto fore provided for their government, and to see that their only hope is to be found in an unconditional submission. These results we believe to be not only attainable but speedily certain.

Financial questions present but one duty to Congress—that of perfecting and fortifying the public credit to the utmost. Beyond this, a simple inactivity will be a masterly wisdom; all else is better if left to the beneficent influences of time and the National development.

But one other question presses. It is the duty of considering whether the rights of Labor and of Capital, in their correlative as well as separate bearings, require legislation, and if so, of what nature and to what extent. Here is the great social problem of the age—and it has hitherto had no satisfactory solution. When we consider that Capital is a structure builded upon Labor as its main corner-stone, we shall recognize our duty to look well to the foundation. The stability of the entire social fabric is concerned therein. The gravity of this question has become very manifest of late, and its thoughtful consideration may not be deferred without peril.

These, and perhaps other questions of public concern, will be manifestly prominent in their claims upon the attention of Congress. We should rejoice to see them adjusted, to the satisfaction of the people, before March next, so that the entrance of ULYSSES GRANT upon the Presidency may find the entire nation ready to receive its new Chief Magistrate and the New Era of Good Feeling together.

None need fear the dissolution of the Union Republican party, which has, in winning this final victory, crowned its two previous triumphs of 1860 and '64. In the hour of its loftiest glory does not come the signal for its disbandment. Instead of dispersion, it is to be solidified; in place of being contracted to its ultimate disappearance, it will expand—nay, it has already expanded—drawing in more and more the masses, and enlarging its lines to the furthest limits of the Republic, and until it shall comprehend an united people and a no longer divided country. Its old battle flag is reverently folded and put away, with the blessings of a nation, to be preserved sacredly in its archives. But the same starry banner still floats to the air. Let rebellion defy it, or treason attempt to drag it down to the dust, and all the loyal millions will rally again as before to its defense. The friends of the Union have stacked their arms, but guard them still. Let one disloyal hand be lifted against Liberty under the Law, and the Republican array will respond to the first tap of the drum with fresh millions. For, hereafter, we are all Republicans, all Union men, all sons of Liberty and Lovers of a Lawful Freedom.

Another party, thank GOD, has forever disappeared. Its career, a long time honorable and useful, culminated at last in treason and it is buried in a perpetual extinguishment. Its leaders, who betrayed it, reap their reward in an oblivion for which they should be grateful, since, in forgetting their persons, it no longer remembers their crimes. The masses who blindly followed them so long, hasten now to join the ranks of the loyal, and hereafter we all march on together, destined by a wise Providence to dedicate a continent to the highest development of Humanity. The New Era now dawning on this people is to be one which shall see all its bleeding wounds bound up, all its public sins atoned for, its national shame abjured, its laws maintained, its honor restored, its great mission on earth more clearly displayed, and its boundless future of power and glory most indisputably manifest before all the nations of Christendom.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

The conscientious and unwearied exertions of Mr. GALUSHA A. GROW, as Chairman of the Republican State Committee, during the most exciting political canvass that has ever been witnessed in this Commonwealth, entitle him to the cordial thanks of all members of the party. Doubtless he was heartily co-operated with by the various local organizations, and by individuals in each of the counties; but as the appointed executive head of the movement great responsibilities were necessarily laid upon him, and he met and discharged them in a manner deserving the highest commendation.

Scarcely, if at all inferior in importance, were the services rendered by Mr. RUSSELL ERRETT, as Chairman of the Republican Committee of Allegheny County. He carried to the performance of the duties devolved upon him admirable capacities for organization, with indomitable industry and perseverance. Associated with him were colleagues of unusual experience, tact and energy. The sub-divisions of the Committee were fortunate, so that each member thereof seemed to drop into the precise place for which he was specially fitted. The result was a combination of abilities and efforts of most remarkable efficiency.

Nor should the Republican orators of Allegheny county be passed by without notice. Messrs. BAYNE, BELL, BROWN, BLAKELY, BIGHAM, CARNAHAN, COLLIER, COHEN, COOK, ERRETT, EWING, FULTON, FERGUSON, FREW, GLENN, GRAHAM, HUMPHREYS, HABERNICHE, HOWARD, HARPER, HAINES, HAMPTON, JONES, KUHN, KIRKPATRICK, KERR, KIBKER, LUCAS, LITTLE, LAMBIE, LEGGATE, MARSHALL, MORELAND, MACKRELL, MILLER, MONTOOTH, MURRAY, MCCOOK, MOORHEAD, MUELLER, MORRIS, MCCORMICK, MCKELVEY, MCCUNE, MCKNIGHT, NEGLEY, PURVIANCE, PARKINSON, PENNEY, POWERS, POLLOCK, PEARSON, ROBB, REED, ROBERTS, RAYMOND, RAMSHORN, SIEBENECK, STONE, SHANNON, SWARTZWELDER, SLAGLE, SMITH, SWEITZER, TAYLOR, WATSON, WAITE, WILSON, ZOLLER and others, gave abundantly of their time and talents to the elucidation of the principles and measures involved in the election. Not a few of these gentlemen have large natural powers, which have been cultivated by wide experiences. Some of them have attained eminence, and are justly ranked among the ablest men of the Commonwealth. Their aid, freely given, has been duly appreciated, and will be gratefully remembered.

A New Street Rail.

Useful as our street railways are, they nevertheless possess certain serious disadvantages. The present form of rail interferes greatly with all vehicles except street cars, and the number of wheels of carts, and and light wagons which are annually injured by being caught between the deep-set rails is much larger than is generally supposed. This inconvenience could be entirely avoided by substituting a different kind of rail for the one now in use. Instead of flanged wheels running on narrow rails, the car wheels might be made with smooth rims, and the rails about four inches in width, with a narrow flange on each side of a quarter of an inch in heighth. In other words, the flange should be attached to the rail instead of the wheel. With a rail of this form the cars would run as easily as they do upon the present rail, and it could be used by every sort of vehicle with almost equal disadvantage.

A somewhat similar system of stone rails, without flanges, however, has long been in use in the streets of Turin, and its usefulness has been demonstrated. The only objection to the wide rail would be found in the increased liability of the cars to leave the track. This, however, would be less than might be supposed, and would be compensated by the ease with which a car once off the track could be replaced; a task which at present is one of no little difficulty, although of daily and frequent occurrence!

ROBERT LE MARINEL, formerly of Davenport, blew out his brains at Denver, last week, with a pistol. The history of this young man is terribly significant. A few years since he was a wealthy, gay and wide-awake young man, having been left a fortune in 1862 by a relative in France. His generous nature, however, couldn't refuse the request of a loan—he lived "fast," and the fortune no sooner came than it went. Disease fastened upon him, and wasting away under its effects, he became dispirited and the end came as it did.

FROM EUROPE.

Interest in the American Elections—Matters in Spain—Mediation in South America—Press License in France.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ENGLAND.

INTEREST IN THE AMERICAN ELECTIONS.

LONDON, November 3.—The greatest interest is manifested in the result of the American elections.

DETAINED.

The Frigate Galata was detained at Plymouth a few days by accident.

SPAIN.

MADRID, November 3.—A large naval and military expedition is fitting out at Cadiz. It will consist of four frigates, heavily armed, conveying a fleet of transports filled with troops. General Dulce, Captain General of Cuba, will sail forthwith with the fleet. It is given out that these troops are to replace those sent by Capt. Gen. Lersundi to Porto Rico.

Gen. Prim publicly declares that the members of the Provisional Government have not even discussed the name of any candidate for the Spanish throne.

Senor Olasiga has issued a call to the moderate Democratic Unionist and Progressive parties to select each four deputies, all of whom shall meet and frame a manifesto in favor of choosing a king for Spain by a plebiscitum.

SOUTH AMERICA.

LONDON, November 3.—It is inferred that President Lopez desires the mediation of England between Paraguay and the South American allies. He recently gave the Captain of the British gunboat Linnet permission to survey the Paraguay river, and it is believed that this unusual concession was intended to secure the good offices of the British Government.

FRANCE.

PARIS, November 3.—The Moniteur to-day, in a leading article on the press, alludes to the Senatus Consultum of 1866 as intended to prevent the liberty of the press from degenerating into license.

MADRID CORRESPONDENCE—GENERAL RIOT IN SPAIN.

A Madrid special says: News from Alicanti, Carthagenia, Barcelona, Seville and Cadiz, announce that most of the shops and manufactories in these cities have been closed. The workingmen, deprived of labor, are becoming restless and boisterous, and the fear of a general riot all over the country causes great uneasiness to the Provisional Government. The loan of 10,000,000 reals ($170,000,) opened for the relief of the workingmen, has not been entirely subscribed. The social question assumes here the same aspect as in Paris in 1848, and socialist clubs are forming all over Madrid.

MISSION OF M. RATAZZI.

A Paris special says: M. Ratazzi, formerly Minister of Foreign Affairs at Florence, is actually at Paris. His mission, although a secret one, is said to relate to the evacuation of Rome by the French troops. He is, if successful, to be placed again at the head of the Italian Cabinet.

RUSSIANS IN NORTH ASIA—SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

A Marseilles special says: The last mails received from Calcutta, via Marseilles, informs us that the Russians were making rapid progress in North Asia, and that the town of Calish had been captured.

The same special says: The Sacred College of Cardinals, presided over by his Holiness, Pope Pius IX., have met for the purpose of advising as to the best means of increasing the Papal army, should the French, as it is now feared, evacuate the Roman States.

NEW YORK CITY.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 3, 1868.

CLOUDLESS SKY.

The storm of the last two days ceased last night, and the sun rose this morning in a cloudless sky.

DEATH OF JUDGE BETTS.

Hon. Samuel R. Betts, more than forty years Judge of the United States District Court of New York, died at midnight last night at New Haven, from apoplexy.

BONDS STOLEN.

A tin box containing twelve thousand five hundred dollars in bonds, was stolen from the office of Morrison & Hutchinson, 327 Broadway, yesterday afternoon about two o'clock. No clue is known to the robbers.

ELECTION QUIET—A NUMBER OF ARRESTS.

The election in this city and Brooklyn passed off quietly up to the closing of the polls, with the exception of small fights and disturbances at two or three precincts, which were promptly and easily quelled by the police, and the offenders arrested. Upon application from Governor Fenton yesterday, General Schofield instructed the commanding General of the Department to place United States troops at the Governor's disposal, in case any necessity should arise for their use. A number of arrests were made in both cities during the day for illegal voting, and the arrested parties were committed or held to answer. The voting was very lively during the first part of the day. At many precincts an average of four votes per minute was being cast.

SAVANNAH, GA.

Riot at the Polls—Several Negroes Killed—White Men Wounded.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

A REBEL REPORT.

SAVANNAH, Ga., November 3.—Negroes appeared in great numbers when the polls opened this morning and took entire possession of the polling places. This continued until about seven o'clock. Every white man who came to the polls was clubbed away. Finally a fight commenced, and the negroes were driven back by the whites, who then commenced to vote. In a few minutes the negroes rallied and attacked the whites. A negro deliberately drew a pistol and shot a policeman in the stomach, mortally wounding him. Firing then became general in the crowd. The police then came to preserve order, when the negroes fought them desperately. Finally the police used pistols, and the negroes broke and ran. Five negroes were killed and several wounded. Four policemen were wounded, one of them mortally. A young lady residing in a house opposite the Court House was also shot by a ball which came through the window, but she is not dangerously hurt. Trouble is anticipated to-night.

LATER.

SAVANNAH, November 3.—Since the morning disturbances all has been quiet. It is impossible to say who is ahead until the actual count is made.

Allegheny Riot—Man Seriously, if Not Fatally, Injured—Four of the Alleged Rioters Arrested.

We are sorry, at the close of the campaign, to have to record an affair of a most serious nature, which occurred in the Second ward, Allegheny, on Monday night, during which George Bothwell, a well known citizen of the ward, received injuries which it is probable will prove fatal. It appears that the Second Ward Grant Club, by invitation, had marched out to the residence of Captain H. S. Fleming, in McClure township, and returned home about eleven o'clock. When they reached the school house the members were dismissed, and with the exception of four or five departed for their homes. Among those who remained were Mr. Bothwell, Mr. John B. McDonald, Mr. Jones, the janitor of the building, and his son.

These gentleman were standing in the school house yard quietly discussing the arrangements for the election on the approaching morrow, when a number of men came along, among whom were Jeremiah Hawley, James Sullivan, Richard Savage and Michael Ryan. It seems that they had been to a Democratic gathering in the Diamond, and when they discovered the party before named, applied hard names and wished to fight them. Mr. McDonald, knowing some of the party, requested them to pass on quietly; but for his pains had a brick hurled at his head, which was the signal for a general onslaught by the entire gang on the party in the yard. Mr. Bothwell was standing immediately behind Mr. McDonald when the first brick was thrown, and was struck on the head. The force of the blow felled him to the ground, and he lay there in an unconcious condition. Officers Hager, Cowell and Herman, of the night police were attracted by the noise, but as soon they made their appearance the assailants fled.

Pursuit was made, and Hawley and Ryan were arrested, and soon after Sullivan was found in his own house, and taken into custody. John Savage was arrested yesterday morning. The parties had a hearing before Mayor Drum on a charge of felonious assault and battery, and were committed for a further hearing to-morrow, by which time the extent of Mr. B's injuries can be determined. All the parties named were more or less injured during the fight, and their faces and clothing covered with clotted blood, presented a shocking picture yesterday morning. Hawley had his left eye closed, and his cheek was bruised considerably. Ryan's right eye was greatly discolored, and he had an ugly cut across the forehead. Sullivan was not so much injured about the face, but he sustained several contusions about the head, and one of his fingers on the right hand was severely lacerated. Savage had an ugly looking cut across the forehead. Their injuries, however, were not dangerous, though painful. In the Bothwell party, the only person injured besides him was Mr. Jones, the janitor of the building. He was struck with some missile while standing in the school house door.

Dr. James B. Herron dressed the injuries of Mr. Bothwell, who resides on Palo Alto street and Benton alley, who found that he had been struck on the left side of the head, and the force of the blow had crushed in his skull. It was also found that he had been kicked in the neck, producing a severe injury. The injuries were pronounced to be of a very dangerous character, and this morning the physician entertains but slight hopes of the recovery of his patient.

Bail Entered.—On his own motion, Mr. John Bell, the Market street merchant, who is charged with complicity in setting fire to his store on oath of a man arrested for the crime, yesterday appeared before Fire Marshal Murphy and entered bail for his appearance at Court. The public sympathy is with Mr. Bell, and there are very few who entertain any doubt as to his innocence. He is anxious for a thorough investigation, and hopes to be able beyond the shadow of doubt to fully vindicate his character before a jury of his fellow-citizens. In the meantime, public opinion should be suspended.

FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

THE CONDITION OF THOUSANDS.

No appetite; no refreshing sleep; no cheerful thoughts; no disposition to labor; no inclination for society; no interest in anything; no desire to live, even; and yet no specific ailment which can be classed as a positive disease. Thousands, aye, tens of thousands, are in this condition—the martyrs of disabilities to which pathology assigns no technical name.

What is the source of their discomfort, mental and bodily? TORPOR OF THE STOMACH; and consequent upon that languor of the circulation, weakness of the nerves, an a clouded brain. What does common sense suggest as a remedy for this deficiency in vital power? Clearly, a RE-VITALIZING MEDICINE—something that will stimulate, tone and sustain the broken down energies of nature. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meet the case exactly. In this benificent TONIC are combined all the ingredients necessary to change the condition of the system, and bring the dormant organs into healthful action. In the fall of the year, when the night-dews are chill and heavy, and the morning fogs are charged with miasma, the body, debilitated by the heats of summer, is particularly susceptible to malignant influences. At this season, of all others, therefore, invigoration is required, both as a safeguard against fever and ague and other malarious disorders, and as a preparation for the searching cold of winter. Dyspepsia, bilious complaints, nervous disorders, and distressing affections of the bowels are always more or less prevalent in October and November, and the surest and safest means of averting them is a course of this purest, mildest and most efficacious of all tonics and alternatives.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative in all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 120 Wood St.

A CANAL JOURNEY.—In these days there are few people who know that a journey on a canal is the pleasantest journey in the world. A canal has to go through fine scenery. It cannot exist unless it follow through the valley of a stream. The movement is so easy that, with your eyes shut, you do not know you move. The route is so direct, that when you are once shielded from the sun you are safe for hours. You draw, you read, you write or you sew, crochet or knit. You play on your flute or your guitar, without one hint or inconvenience. At a "low bridge" you duck your head lest you lose your hat—and that reminder teaches you that you are human. You are glad to know this, and you laugh at the memento. For the rest of the time you journey if you are "all right" within, in elysium.—If, Yes and Perhaps.

UNDER A STEAMBOAT WHEEL.—The Providence Journal says: On Friday morning, when the steamer Bradford Durfree was about leaving her wharf at Fall river for Providence, a boat from the schooner Theodore Dean came up to the fore part of the steamer, desiring to put a man on board, to come to Providence. Capt. Durfee, being on the after part of the steamer and looking at the wharf, did not see the boat and started the steamer, when one man jumped on the steamer, and jumped overboard. A man and the boat went under the wheel but, strange to say, the man was not seriously injured, while the boat and a chest on board were compeletly demolished.

THE ex-Queen of Spain left behind her 170 carriages, several splendid Arab and English horses, as well as the finest collection of mules extant, in the coach houses and stables of her royal palace at Madrid. One vehicle, that which annually conveyed her Most Catholic Majesty to the opening of the Cortes, is a marvellous specimen of gilding and carving, and gorgeous are the trappings belonging thereto. More curious as a historic relic is the quaintly-sculptured vehicle in which Jane, Charles V.'s insane daughter, traveled with the body of her dead husband, Philip the Handsome.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring the lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch office of the Company in Philadelphia, or the General Agents.

long talked of work. It is a tale of

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, November 3, 1868.

Money was even more stringent to-day than yesterday, and very good houses were compelled to sell their bonds to get money. For the same reason gold was kept down to-day, although there is a strong element in the market capable of advancing rates at any moment, and the attempt to do so to-day was an indication what will follow, although gold closed lower this evening. Importers and dealers in foreign gold that buy for gold all are anxious to cover, and an advance of one per cent. of the premium will start the ball to roll on to which nobody knows but the two or three operators, who will only know it when they come on the market with their purse. The government is not likely coming to the relief of parties who have not bought in time unless gold is unnaturally high, and then only a limited amount may be sold to obtain currency. The shipments of coin to Europe as the rate of exchange would indicate, will not amount to more than some smaller amounts which would have no effect on the market.

Government bonds were firm this morning but lower, and 1865 Consols had touched 109¾, and 1864s, 107, but as soon as the market rallied, and the demand increased, and advancing the price about ¾ per cent. on the new issue of 1868, in which there is a short interest; when the result of the election will be known in Europe, new orders to purchase bonds from there, and an advance of 2 per cent. may be fairly counted on.

Stocks remained very firm to-day, and and after a relapse of the stringency of the money market, a rapid advance is expected in all the various securities. Erie is remarkably firm at 40½; New York Central advanced 2 per cent.; Fort Wayne is steady at 113, and Cleveland at 87; Reading is stiff at 98½, and Old Southern is higher. Express stocks are strong at former quotations.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, November 3, 1868.

The general markets were very quiet today, the time and attention of almost everybody being absorbed in the election, and business was looked upon as a secondary matter. There seems to be a little better feeling in commercial circles than there was last week, the panic in the grain market having partially subsided, though confidence has not by any means been fully restored.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, November 3, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market was exceedingly quiet today, the great majority of the dealers giving their time and services at the polls, and as a consequence, we have but a single sale to record, 400 bbls Smith's Ferry at 11. Quotations may be fairly given at 11 for light, and 11¼ for heavy gravities, and, as already noted, a very dull market.

REFINED.

Not a single sale reported, and while the market continues dull, prices are unchanged. Spot, or the first half of November, 28¼ to 28¾c; lines from January to June offered at 29½c, with 29c bid. The foreign markets are quiet and without essential change, and the same is true of New York and Philadelphia.

A STORY OF LIFE IN NEW YORK.

(From Packard's Monthly.)

In the month of February, 1852, Isaac W. England, Esq., formerly the city editor of the New York Tribune; was returning to this city from Liverpool in the emigrant packet ship New York, in which he had taken a second class passage, for the purpose of learning practically how emigrants fared in such vessels.

Mr. England did this with a view to exposing the atrocities then practiced upon emigrants, and which he afterwards did expose with effect as to be largely instrumental in the fundamental regeneration of the whole emigrant business, and the creation of the Castle Garden Commission.

Among the passengers in the second cabin of the packet ship was a handsome English girl some nineteen years of age, from near Mr. England's native town. The fact that the girl came from near his native town led Mr. England to feel an interest in her, and he learned that she was coming to America to join her brother then living near Pottsville, in Penusylvania.

On landing in New York the girl went to a boarding house in Greenwich street, there to await her brother's arrival—it having been arranged that he should come to New York for her.

Mary (for that was her name) had not been in the boarding house many days when a German woman called there in search of a bar-maid, and seeing Mary, she at once sought to induce her to accept the situation. It is not uncommon for English girls of the class to which Mary belonged, to act as bar maids in England, that being there a respectable employment.

Deceived by the complaisant manners, and lured by the liberal promises of the German woman, the unsuspecting English girl accepted her offer and went with her to her saloon—a basement in William street, near Pearl.

After one day's service as bar maid, Mary was bluntly informed by her employer that she had been brought thither to serve in a capacity which we will not name, and was ordered to make ready for at once entering upon a life of shame.

The horror-stricken girl, frantic with terror, set about immediately leaving the premises. But she was too valuable a prize to be allowed to escape. The hag into whose clutches she had fallen, locked her up in a back basement room, extending under a grate in the yard, and open to the inclemency of the weather; and there she kept her for two days and two nights—the girl not daring to eat or drink anything all that time, for fear of being drugged to insensibility and ruin.

The only sustenance that passed that girl's lips for eight and forty hours was the snow that she scraped from the area grating. Nor did she dare to close her eyes in sleep for an instant.

And while thus imprisoned, constant efforts were made to intimidate or force her to the fate to which the keeper of the place was determined to drive her. For this purpose, man after man was sent to her prison. With some of them a simple statement of the case was sufficient to turn them from their purpose; but against others she had to fight as if for her life for that which was to her dearer than life.

But lack of food and lack of sleep began to tell upon her. Her strength failed, her mind weakened, and it seemed as though her doom was sealed.

On the third day of Mary's imprisonment Mr. England, who was about to start for Rhode Island, bethought himself of his young country woman, and determined to call at the boarding-house in Greenwich street to see what had become of her. He did so, and was informed that she had engaged as bar-maid in the William street saloon.

Having knowledge of such places, Mr. England was troubled at this news, and though pressed for time, he determined to call at the saloon and see what kind of hands Mary had fallen into. He went thither, and the moment he entered the place he discovered its character.

On inquiring of the landlady for Mary, he was told that she had gone to Pennsylvania with her brother, who had come for her two days before. Something in the woman's manner excited Mr. England's suspicions, and he told her that he thought she was deceiving him, and that Mary was still in the house.

At this the woman flew into a passion and swore volubly at Mr. England in several languages. This strengthened his suspicions of foul play, and he grew more peremptory in his manner and speech. While he was contesting the matter with the landlady, one of the girls in waiting passed near him and muttered something which he understood to be a statement that Mary was actually in the house.

Upon this Mr. England took decided ground, and told the woman that unless she immediately produced the girl he would go for an officer and have her arrested. This brought her to terms. She gave one of the waitresses a key, and an order in German, in pursuance of which the girl went and unlocked the room in which Mary was confined. As soon as the door was opened Mary came rushing out, and seeing Mr. England, she flew to him—sobbing hysterically, and clinging to his arm—and cried:

"Take me from this place, Mr. England; take me from this place!"

After demanding Mary's trunk, which was delivered to him, with all her things, Mr. England immediately took the rescued girl to a place of safety.

Mary's brother had died, as she soon learned, while she was on her voyage to meet him. But a young New York lawyer saw her and loved her, and wooed her, and won her, and married her, and she is now living, happy and prosperous, in Brooklyn.

* * * * *

About half past four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, July 19th, as we were going from the Howard Mission to the New York Tribune office, we came upon a contest such as is characteristic of certain quarters in that part of the city which we were traversing. The fight came off at the corner of William and New Chambers street. Two women—one of whom was dressed in white, and held a little girl about six years old by the hand—were demanding their clothes of the keeper of the place—a tall, tough, panthery-looking creature, who savagely refused to give them any satisfaction whatever.

The front door being open, we could not only hear but see how matters were going on, although we were left in the dark as to the rights of the parties. The landlady at last called down reinforcements from the upper regions and drove the two women, who were doubtless her lodgers, out on to the front door steps, where they rallied, and began a contest of billingsgate with the inexorable creature. By this time a large crowd had gathered before the house, and the contestants were alternately cheered on in their wordy war. At last the woman in white, who still held her child by the hand, told the landlady that "her heart was as false as her teeth." This was too much for any woman te bear.

Darting into the house with a yell like that of a tigress, the landlady seized what seemed to be a heavy mop-handle, about six feet long, and, rushing out with it, she struck the woman in white such a blow on the head as broke the mop-handle in two. At this the woman in white let go her child's hand, gave her hat to her companion, and made a rush up the steps at her assailant. The latter struck her again, this time in the face, and so heavily that the blood spirted from her cheek, and the mop-handle again broke; but, nothing daunted, the woman in white pressed on up the steps and clutched the landlady by the hair. At the same moment the landlady clutched the woman in white by the hair, and as she was the taller of the two, and was a step higher, she had a great advantage. She bore the woman in white back and twisted her head so far around that it seemed as though she'd wring her neck. The woman's poor child was terror-stricken, and shrieked—

"Don't kill my mamma! Don't kill my mamma! DON'T KILL MY MAMMA!"

The mother responded:

"Hush, darling! I'm game! Don't mind me! I'm game! Don't mind me! I'm game!"

She continued to repeat "I'm game! I'm game!" and gradually it became apparent that she was game, and that she was going to win. Slowly she gathered the landlady's head towards her own, and forced her down towards the steps. The landlady, seeing that she was overmatched, called for help, and three of her myrmidons rushed to her assistance; but a robust ruffian drove them off, and stood by to see fair play.

In a moment more the landlady came heavily down upon the steps, and both women rolled to the sidewalk, holding fast to each other's hair. The woman in white, as soon as she touched the pavement, sprang to her knees, and, holding her antagonist's head down with one hand furiously pommelled her face with the other.

"Police! police!" somebody cried, and two patrolmen were seen approaching. The woman in white sprang to her feet, seized her child with one hand and her hat with the other, and fled (along with her companion) up William street to Pearl, and thence toward Chatham, while the landlady crawled up the steps to her abode, and the crowd dispersed.

It may seem strange to unsophisticated readers that a woman with a child should be found among such people. It is unusual for such a mother to take her child with her to a haunt of vice; but the truth is that many a mother is driven to such a course of life because she has children for whom she can in no other way get bread. The horrors of this city are unfathomable, or, if not unfathomable, they are unrevealable. No pen can write, no tongue can speak them.

THE ELECTIONS.

of last March, shows a falling off of 7,50, though the registration exceeded that by 2,500. The following is the official vote: Grant 4,818, Seymour 2,552; Leftwich, (Dem.) for Congress, 2,516; Munn, (Rep.) 383; Smith, (Rep.), 4,503. Returns from other parts of the State are meagre. The indications are that Leftwich is elected by a small majority.

Haywood county—Bell's Station gives 96 for Seymour and 35 for Grant.

Madison county—Jackson gives Grant 289, Seymour 267.

Hardeman county—Democratic majority probably 600.

Giles county probably gone Democratic by a small majority.

Obion county, official, 88 Democratic maj.

A dispatch from Nashville, dated 11 P. M., states all the city has been heard from but one ward, giving Grant, 3,552, and Seymour 920.

Chattanooga gives Grant 761, and Seymour 247. Vote in the State light. Arnel leads Buck at Clarksville, and is re-elected to Congress.

The Chairman of the Republican State Republican Committee claims the State by 50,000. The Democrats concede it by 10,000 or 20,000.

RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, October 3.—Rhode Island probably gives 5,000 majority for Grant.

Providence—Returns from the entire State except four towns, give Grant 10,940, Seymour, 5,470. Further returns will make Grant's majority about 6,000.

Thomas A. Jencks and Nathan J. Dixon are re-elected to Congress by large majorities.

Providence city gives Grant, 4,173, Seymour, 1,780: a Republican majority of 2,383.

Providence—Jenckes for Congress in the First District, has 3,840 maj. Dixon, in the Second District has 1,434 maj. with one town to hear from, which will not change the result.

Complete returns, except from Block Island, gives Grant, 12,888, Seymour, 6,495; Grant's maj. 6,397. Providence city gives Grant, 4,473, Seymour, 1,790. Newport gives Grant, 883, Seymour, 390.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh—This city has gone largely Republican; in the First Congressional District a Conservative is elected.

RALEIGH, Nov. 3.—Twenty precincts show a Republican majority of 1,074.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 3.—A more quiet election was never witnessed. The vote in this city was, Grant 2,301, Seymour 1,197, a Republican gain of 242. The Democratic majority in Wayne county is 652, a Democratic gain of 315. The Democratic majority in Columbus county shows a gain of 100. Republican majority in New Hanover county is 1,600, being a gain of 265. Later returns from Columbus county give for Whitesville precinct a Democratic gain of 80. Williams precinct up to 2 o'clock p. m. gives the Democrats 125; Republicans none. Returns from the Congressional elections are meagre, but the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th Districts are conceded to the Radicals. The returns are not sufficient to warrant any definite estimate, but the indications are that the vote will be close in the State, with chances in favor of the Republicans.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville—As far as heard from the election throughout the State passed off quietly. The vote of the city of Louisville is as follows: Seymour 8,884; Grant 1,406; Democratic maj. 7,478, a Republican gain of nearly 1,000 since August. Returns from 14 towns give Seymour 1,74, Grant 1'000. The indications are that both parties have largely increased their vote in the State. The Republicans have doubtless increased their vote over August by from five to ten thousand. The entire Democratic Congressional ticket is elected.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 3.—Further returns continue to show Republican gains. The Republicans claim an increase of 10,000 in the State.

LOUISIANA.

A private dispatch from New Orleans states that the Democrats have exclusive possession of the polls, and that the Republicans are not attempting to vote.

NEW ORLEANS, November 3.—The city gives 25,000 Democratic majority. The State is largely Democratic, with but few Republican votes cast.

NEW ORLEANS, November 3.—The election in the city passed off quietly, with no trouble of any kind, and no interference with voters. The negroes of the city abstained almost totally from voting. In the fourth district, the strongest Democratic district in the city, out of 4,200 votes 4,100 were Democratic. Throughout the country parishes the negroes voted freely. The Democratic majorities in all the localities heard from are large.

ALABAMA.

Montgomery—Montgomery county gives 4,000 Republican majority, but the State is probably carried by the Conservatives.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 3.—The result in the State is yet in doubt.

Alabama has probably gone Democratic by a small majority.

Mobile—The indications so far show that Alabama has gone for Seymour and Blair by a small majority. It is impossible at this hour to tell the result.

Mobile—Complete returns from Mobile show 883 majority for Seymour. The county gives about 1,500 majority. The best authorities give the State to Seymour by a small majority.

Decatur gives Seymour sixty maj. Tuscumbia gives Seymour 370 maj. There are also Democratic majorities in Athens and Bridgeport.

ARKANSAS.

Returns are meagre, owing to the few telegraph offices. Pine Bluff, Grant 342, Seymour 105. Augusta, Seymour 291 maj. Duvall's Bluff, Grant 112, Seymour 35. Helena township, Grant 1,250 maj. Batesville, Seymour 17 maj. Jacksonport, Seymour 147 maj. Des Arc gives Grant 28, Seymour 74.

The vote is close and the result cannot be possibly known for several days.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, October 3.—3. P.,—The election is progressing very quietly. A heavy vote is being polled both in the city and county.

Baltimore city gives a Democratic majority of 12,565.

Washington county—Seven districts show a Republican gain of 283.

Baltimore city gives Grant 9,052, Seymour 21,593. In the Third District for Congress, Swann has 12,961 majority, King 5,608 in the Fourth District. The returns show large Republican gains in Washington, Frederick, Carroll and Allegheny counties, and the Congressional contest is close.

FREDERICK, November 3.—Returns from eight districts show a Republican gain of 310. A gain of the same ratio in the other nine districts will give one hundred Republican majority.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, November 3.—Twelve precincts give Grant 6,728, Seymour 4,205. Sixth precinct, in the First district, Gen. Pile, Republican, for Congress, 3,044; Wells, Democrat, 2,396. The returns come in slowly and both parties claim the Congressman in the First district, but the chances are in favor of Wells. The Constitutional amendment for negro suffrage will be defeated in this county.

IOWA.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4, 2 A. M.—The Chairman of the Republican State Committee says the returns now indicate a Republican majority of over 50,000 majority. Negro suffrage is adopted by a large majority, and every Congressional District carried by a large majority.

Returns received show Republican gains and indicate a Republican majority of 30,000.

DAVENPORT, November 3.—Iowa may be set down as sure for forty thousand majority for Grant.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. VA., November 3.—Returns from twenty towns show large Republican gains over October. The Secretary of the Republican State Committee claims the State by 8,000 majority.

The indications are that the State will give Grant a majority as large as in 1866, which was 6,662. Only one point outside the city thus far reports Democratic gains. Wheeling city and Ohio county give a Democratic gain of 12 in seven townships over October.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, November 3.—The election here was one of the quietest ever known. Partial returns indicate that the Republicans have carried the State by a reduced majority. The State is conceded for Grant but the Democrats claim two out of the four Congressmen.

VERMONT.

BURLINGTON, November 3.—The returns of this city give Grant 707, Seymour 439.

Returns show Republican gains, and the State will give about 30,000 Republican majority.

MINNESOTA.

Returns are meagre. The Republicans claim the State by 7,000 majority. Wilson, (Dem.) is reported elected over Donnelly and Andrews. Negro suffrage is adopted by 2,000 to 3,000 majority.

DELAWARE.

New Castle county gives 209 Democratic majority for President, and 213 Democratic majority for Congressman. Red Lion gives 100, New Castle 60 and Pencador 179 Democratic majority.

GEORGIA.

Special dispatches report Democratic majorities in the chief towns of Georgia.

The State will give about 30,000 Democratic majority.

WISCONSIN.

CHICAGO, November 3.—Returns are scattering, but indicate a Republican majority of 10,000 to 12,000.

OREGON.

Large Union gains, and it is thought that Grant will have a small majority.

NEVADA.

The State is claimed for Grant.

Seymour's "Victories."

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

The following States have gone for Seymour: New York five thousand majority; Maryland two thousand five hundred; Delaware two thousand five hundred; Kentucky ninety thousand; Alabama five thousand; Georgia ten thousand; Louisana thirty thousand; New Jersy and Arkansas are doubtful, and but few returns from the Southern States generally.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, November 3. 1868.

U. S. STEAMERS AT GIBRALTAR.

The United States steamers Franklin, Ticonderago, Swata and Frolic were at Gibraltar on the 9th of October. The Canandaguay was daily expected.

SURRATT CASE.

The Surratt case was, to-day, called up in the Supreme Court of the District, the motion being to dismiss the appeal of the District Attorney from the decision of Judge Wylie, in the Criminal Court, sustaining the plea of the statute of limitation made by the accused, and discharging the prisoner. Messrs. Merrick and Bradley, Jr., appeared for Surratt, and Mr. Carrington for the United States. The Court has the case under consideration.

FEELING IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 3.—Great excitement here. The Republicans are enthusiastic beyond expression, and the Democrats are disheartened. President Johnson was the most anxious waiter for telegraphic news, and was not much surprised at the result.

PHILADELPHIA.

Serious Political Difficulty—Five Men Shot, Some Fatally.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Midnight, Nov. 3, '68.

A serious shooting affray occurred here to-night. As the Invincible (Rep.) Club were passing the corner of Eighth and Chestnut streets, they came in collision with a party of down-town Democrats, when both parties commenced firing indiscriminately. It is said that five men were shot, some of them being fatally injured. The affair at one time threatened to be of a very serious character, and a terrible riot was feared.

WEST INDIES.

Rival Presidential Candidates.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, November 3.—Advices from Hayti state that Saget had been named as Provisional President, and Dominique President of the South by the elective forces, unknown to each other, and it was still a matter of fearful conjecture what course would be pursued, when Dominique and Saget found themselves rival candidates. Saget was at St. Marie, which was blockaded, and it is reported that a revolt had taken place against him.

Conservative Successes in South America—Loan Decreed.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 3.—The Herald's Brazil correspondence, September 26th, says: The municipal elections throughout the Empire were over, and the result has been an overwhelming majority for the Conservatives. The gold bond loan of 50,000,000 Mulers has been decreed and published.

Destructive Fire.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ELMIRA, N. Y., November 3.—A fire last night destroyed three stores in Centre street, occupied by J. Anholt, S. C. Brownell and Mrs. Maas, and several families living in the rooms up stairs, were burned out. The goods were mostly saved.

Females Refused a Vote.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 3.—Lucy Stone and Mrs. Blackwell, her mother-in-law, offered their votes in the Eleventh ward today, but the Judges refused to receive them.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Route for Sale.—A splendid Route in Allegheny City, with over four hundred subscribers, can be bought by an energetic man who will give his entire attention to the route. Apply at the GAZETTE Counting room on Wednesday, between the hours of 9 and 10 A. M.

The frost was quite heavy yesterday morning.

Be guarded in your confidence. Confidence men are operating.

The sidewalks of some of the streets in Allegheny need repairing badly.

Building improvements are going on extensively in the two cities and their suburbs.

No Meeting.—There was no meeting of the Allegheny Board of Controllers last evening.

The milk furnished to our citizens at present apparently like "the quality of mercy, is not strained."

The Democratic candidate for Vice President passed through the city yesterday morning, going west.

The Police Committee have decided to furnish the police with overcoats, after the style of those adopted in the East.

Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street, is the place where an immense stock of dress goods, and every variety of dry goods are offered to the public at such reasonable prices.

Song and Chorus.—The still hours were made vocal last night with soul stirring patriotic airs by the numerous Union Glee Clubs, as they went marching through the streets.

Happy as Kings.—In all the wide world there was not to be found a happier set of men than the Republicans of Allegheny county last night. Well, who had a better right to be joyous?

Severely Scalded.—A little daughter of a widow lady named Lowter, residing in the Sixteenth ward, was severely scalded yesterday by falling into a tub of hot water while her mother was engaged in washing clothes.

Sworn In.—Gen. A. L. Pearson and W. B. Flack, Esq., District and Assistant District Attorney elect for Allegheny county, were sworn into office yesterday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, Judge Sterrett presiding.

Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street, is the ladies emporium of fashion. It is to Pittsburgh what Stewart's is to New York. The quality of the goods sold at this establishment are such as to commend the house to all purchasers.

Sing Boys, Sing.—The Lawrenceville Glee Club made the air vocal with the melody of their exultant strains in front of our office last evening. That's right boys, sing aloud and make a joyful noise. The victory is with us.

The Lane Case.—The argument in the case of Louis Lane, colored, the convicted wife poisoner, will be heard in the Supreme Court to-day. W. T. Haines, Esq., will appear for the prisoner, and District Attorney Duff for the Commonwealth.

Serious Charge.—John Johnson, colored, made information before Mayor Blackmore on Saturday, charging Alderman W. O. Johns, of the Eleventh ward, with extortion and taking illegal fees. The amount claimed to have been extorted is $4,50. The accused gave bail for a hearing.

Took His Cue.—Mr. J. E. Lowe won an elegant billiard cue at the match in Birmingham on Monday evening, and when on his way home with it a scamp snatched it out of his hand and struck him over the head breaking it in two pieces. Mr. Lowe not relishing this style of game had the fellow arrested.

Inhuman Villain.—A wretch, who is unknown, attempted to outrage the person of an old lady upwards of seventy years of age, on Saturday night last, in Birmingham. She had retired to bed at the time of the assault; but her cries brought assistance, when the scoundrel fled, and although pursuit was made he escaped. The old lady says he was a heavy set man with a dark head.

Death of P. B. Cassiday.—A letter has been received announcing the death, in Ringgold, Ga., of P. B. Casssiday, said to have formerly belonged to this city, and has friends in Altoona and Philadelphia. The gentleman sending the letter is Mr. Henry J. Morton, of Nashville, Tennessee, who will give all information he may possess to any relative of the deceased who may communicate with him.

Pleasant Affair.—The serenade with which we were favored by the Keystone Glee Club, last evening, was a very pleasant and agreeable episode in the round of our editorial duties. The Keystone was organized for the campaign, under the leadership of Prof. R. M. Cargo, and fought it out on the Grant line until the unconditional surrender of their opponents last evening, and the triumph of the cause which they had espoused.

Disorderly.—Jacob Weigle alleges that Peter Donnelly came into his saloon, near the Central Skating Park, and acted in a very disorderly manner, going so far as to smash some of the windows, reduce to kindling wood a part of the furniture, and concluded operations by endeavoring to smash the proprietor. The offense is said to have been made on Monday. Donnelly was arrested yesterday and held for a hearing before Mayor Blackmore.

Stricken Down.—We were pained to learn that Mr. Allen Kramer, of the Central Bank, was stricken down by a fit of apoplexy in the banking house about half-past two o'clock on Monday afternoon. Medical aid was immediately procured, and after he had revived somewhat he was removed to his residence at East Liberty. It gives us pleasure to state that at last accounts he was doing well and likely to recover with proper care in a short time.

Alleged Assault.—C. H. Huehel is a wagon maker, doing business in Pittsburgh. Ernest Deckenbach is a chairmaker, and carries on his trade in the Sixth ward, Allegheny. Huehel alleges that Deckenbach knocked him down and beat him yesterday because he could not pay the amount of a bill which his assailant held against him. The accused was arrested and brought before Alderman M'Masters, who held him to bail for a hearing.

Serenaded.—The Allegheny Glee Club, a chorus of well trained and sweet singers, under the leadership of that accomplished musician, Prof. W. H. Slack, invaded the quiet of our sanctum last evening, and favored us with a most delightful vocal serenade. This club takes high rank among the best in our vicinity, and by its patriotic and inspiring melodies, has done not a little toward the triumphant success of the glorious cause in which it was enlisted.

Alleged False Pretense.—M. J. Henon made information before Alderman McMasters against C. Faas, for false pretense. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant obtained from the firm of Robb and Henon thirty-two dollars worth of potatoes by representing that he was in good circumstances in Pittsburgh, and the owner of one of the best farms in Washington county, which representations are untrue. The accused was arrested and in default of three hundred dollars bail, committed to jail for a hearing.

THE ELECTION:

Brilliant Victory in Allegheny County—Receiving the Returns at City Hall—Incidents—Figures Received.

The election, yesterday, passed off with order. The Republicans had cast their vote much earlier than their opponents, and securing the advantage in the morning, generally managed to retain it throughout the day. This was the effect of thorough organization, and will serve on future occasions to incite to work those who cannot see the use of conducting a campaign in an active, energetic manner. Throughout the county there have been heavy Republican gains, as the annexed table will show, and, altogether, the majority obtained for Grant and Colfax is highly creditable to the intelligence, loyalty and patriotism of our people. Here are the figures:

* Majorities.

The nineteen districts yet to hear from at the October election gave a Republican majority of 932, which will make an aggregate majority in the county of 11,088.

AT CITY HALL.

Republican Headquarters, City Hall, was thrown open at seven o'clock, and no sooner were the doors open than the immense crowd, which had at that early hour congregated around the door, rushed into the hall, and in a few moments it was impossible to find standing room inside of the capacious auditorium, and the anxious multitude impatiently awaited the arrival of the good news which they seemed to know would soon be read to them.

The Western Union and Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Companies had, as at the October election, their wires extending into the Hall, and the dispatches were read to the audience as taken from the instruments.

The dispatches were received by Colonel Russell Errett, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, and read by Col. J. H. Stewart, Secretary.

The "ball" opened by the receipt of a dispatch from Philadelphia, announcing that the Republicans had carried that city by about three thousand majority. The enthusiasm which had only been waiting an opportunity to evince itself now burst forth in all its power, and the old Hall once more resounded with the cheers of loyal men.

The returns from several of the city wards were next read, and, as they nearly all showed Republican gains, the enthusiasm was increased.

When the returns from the Second ward, Allegheny, were announced they were hailed with shouts of applause, and as each additional Republican gain from the local districts was announced the enthusiasm grew in its intensity.

[A dead rooster was thrown up by some one in the audience, and was bandied from one point to another for several minutes, until it finally landed on the stage, when it disappeared.]

The announcement that Grant had carried several States by largely increased majorities over the late elections was received with thunders of applause.

The election of General Butler to Congress by a two-thirds vote was the next thing to start their enthusiasm, and for several minutes it was impossible to hear, so loud and prolonged was the applause.

Professor Pope was called for and sang "Rally Round the Flag," with the request that every man in the house would join in the chorus, to which they responded nobly, producing a most thrilling effect, fully five thousand voices shouting in harmony the patriotic words of that best of patriotic songs.

At the conclusion of the song, Mr. Bigham was called on and responded in his usual happy style.

Judge Shannon was next called upon, and responded in a brief but eloquent speech, which was received by the vast audience with enthusiastic applause.

The Keystone Glee Club were then introduced and sang one of their excellent campaign songs, after which several dispatches from different counties of this State, and Ohio and Indiana were read and as they announced large Republican gains, the reading of these added to the already intense enthusiasm.

Col. James Scott was then called upon for a song, and responded by singing Sherman's March to the Sea," the entire audience joining in the chorus, with great effect.

As soon as order was restored Colonel Stewart read a dispatch from Cincinnati announcing that Ohio had given forty thousand for Grant and Colfax. This was the signal for another burst of enthusiasm.

The majority in Allegheny county, so far as heard from at that time, was then announced as being 10,573, when Col. Stewart proposed three cheers for the "State of Allegheny," which was responded to with a will.

A dispatch from Philadelphia, stating that the State had given a Republican majority of twenty thousand, was then read and created unbounded enthusiasm.

When order had been partially restored, Hon. Thomas Bingham was called upon, and responded by one of his best efforts.

At the conclusion of Mr. Bingham's remarks, Col. Stewart stated that he had just been informed that the flag at the Commercial office had been burned by the Fifth ward Democratic Club, the announcement of which threw the audience into the most intense excitement, and a large number left the hall. Colonel Stewart advised them to let the matter pass and use no violence, as our triumph was so complete we could afford to be lenient with such scallawags. His good counsel had the desired effect, and in a few moments order was restored, the hall again filled, and the Colonel proceeded to read a number of dispatches which had been received during the interim, as follows:

Total majority in Allegheny City is three thousand two hundred and forty, a Republican gain of five hundred and five over the October election.

West Virginia is claimed by the Republicans by over eight thoesand. This good news restored the general good feeling which had prevailed previous to the announcement of the burning of the flag, and the crowd once more made the old hall ring with applause.

Prof. Pope was called upon and sang, as he said for the last, his popular campaign song, "The Miller and His Three Sons," after which Hon. P. C. Shannon was called upon and addressed the meeting in a brief, but able and eloquent speech, creating the wildest enthusiasm, and eliciting perfect thunders of applause from the audience.

At the conclusion of Mr. Shannon's remarks, a dispatch was read announcing that Massachusetts had given a majority of seventy-five thousand for Grant, which was the signal for another outburst of enthusiastic cheers, from at least five thousand throats.

When the confusion, consequent upon this announcement had partially subsided, the Allegheny Glee Club was called upon, and sang several songs.

After several dispatches from different States had been read, over which the usual amount of cheering was done, the Central Glee Club was called upon and after making their way with considerable difficulty to the front of the stage, sang an excellent campaign medley.

Dispatches from Connecticut, Illinois and Michigan, stating that those States had gone Republican by majorities respectively, two, fifty and twenty-five thousand, were read, and the vast audience was once more filled with enthusiasm, if the noise they made is any indication, and after a few more songs and the reading of numerous dispatches, Colonel Stewart announced that the meeting would now stand adjourned, when the vast multitude quietly dispersed and wended their way to their several homes, fully satisfied with the work of the day and the evening's entertainment.

INCIDENTS.

The GAZETTE building was specially honored with evidences of the appreciation of our friends for the work we have helped to accomplish. Early in the evening we were serenaded by the favorite Keystone Glee Club, and equally popular Allegheny Glee Club, both of our sister city. The gentlemen composing these Clubs have done excellent service in the campaign and will long be remembered as conspicuous features of the canvass. Prof. Cargo leads the former and Prof. Slack the latter. Late in the evening about five hundred of our enthusiastic friends paid us a visit and sung in good style, "We'll rally around the flag boys." Subsequently a party of about two hundred paid us a visit, and being so pleased with the glowing specials on our bulletin hoisted up the heavy board, and in triumph carried it to City Hall, where it was the occasion of loud and deafening cheers. All evening the office was thronged with anxious voters to receive the latest returns.

The Dispatch and Commercial offices were similarly honored. At the former establishment a profuse display of fire works was made in honor of the glorious victory achieved. The office of the Post, after nine o'clock, was deserted and nary light shone in the gas jet rooster placed over the door. Some poet observed that

"Fowl play is at an end.
Post roosters got the Grecian Bead."

TRICKS ON TRAVELERS.

At about one o'clock in the morning when the election of Grant was made certain by the returns, the enthusiasm of the clans of Republicans yet on the streets, knew no bounds. With mirth and song they paraded and made night hideous with cheers. Coming across Hon. T. M. Marshall, who was on his way home in a buggy, satisfied that victory had crowned the work in which he so largely engaged, a crowd halted and unhitched his horses, and compelled him to make a speech from the Postoffice steps. He did so in his happiest manner, and was then permitted to "hitch up" and go on his way rejoicing.

Thus has ended the prolonged and exciting campaign of 1868. There are few who will not rejoice that the curtain has dropped on the scenes of a bitter political contest, and that the excitement incident thereto has passed away with the election. Business, which has seriously been impaired during the canvass, will rapidly improve and Republicans and Democrats will find more to occupy their time and attention than political subjects.

Almost a Murder.

A shooting affray occurred near the Birmingham Postoffice, last Saturday evening, by which a young man named George Robinson was severely wounded. It seems, from what we could learn, that Robinson and some others were standing at the place designated, when a man, apparently intoxicated, approached them hurrahing for his favorite candidate. Robinson made a remark about Copperheads, when the stranger drew a revolver, and exclaiming, "All Copperheads should be killed," fired, the ball taking effect in the fleshy part of Robinson's right arm. The assailant took to his heels immediately, and succeeded in making his escape over the Birmingham bridge. Robinson's wound, though painful, is not necessarily dangerous, and with proper care it is probable he will recover in a few days. The ball had not been extracted at last accounts. No cause, outside of pure maliciousness, can be assigned for the act.

Collision on the Pan Handle Railroad—One Man Fatally Injured.

A collision occurred on the Pan Handle Railroad, yesterday morning, at Fort Pitt Station, between Walker's mills and Mansfield, resulting in the fatal injury of one man and the severe injury of several others. It seems from what we could learn of the affair, that Engine No. 10, used in the vicinity of Broadhead, for the purpose of assisting in hauling stone trains up the steep grades thereabouts, started out yesterday morning, some time previous to the collision, but was considerably delayed by a land slide, which occurred the evening before, and which also delayed somesomewhat all the trains on the road. A temporary track was constructed around the slide by which the engine was enabled to proceed on its way, which it did at a rapid rate. The McDonald Accommodation, due here at a few minutes past eight o'clock was on time at Fort Pitt Station, but the engineer of No. 10, it is said, forgot that the train mentioned was on the track and did not slacken the speed of the engine, and in rounding a curve at the station, the two engines came in collision.

Mr. John P. Heil, the fireman on the engine of the accommodation train, was caught in the crush and terribly mangled, his injuries being of such a character as to preclude all hope of recovery. George Miller, clerk at the transfer station, on the road, was also severely, but not dangerously injured. A number of other persons were hurt more or less, but none of their injuries were of a serious character.

All on board of Engine No. 10, miraculously escaped without suffering. Both engines were considerably damaged but can be put into running order again. A brother of Mr. Heil went up to the scene as soon as the news reached the city, but he has not yet returned.

The Western Union Telegraph Company, Through its capable and enterprising Superintendent of this city, displayed its complete organization throughout the Union by the rapid manner in which it laid before the public last night the returns of the election from nearly every district in the country. The wires of the company penetrate all sections, and are in charge of skillful and intelligent operators, who fully know their duties to the public, and last night's work fully demonstrated the capacity of the corporation to meet all emergencies. Business men will appreciate the exhibition of completeness in organization and efficiency displayed by this company. Politicians of both parties are indebted to the Pittsburgh branch for the many favors in the way of returns received last night.
